PUBLISHED EYERY TUESDAY BY

Geo. OU. Elbillett,

BTHOM AND PROPERTIES.

Trans:-One dollar and fifty cents in advance ; one dollar and seventy-five cents at the end of six months; two dollars at the end of the year, to which twenty-five cents will be added if payment be delayed

Appendiscusses inserted on reasonable torms, the

BOOK S TOE BREATENC

Exerned with neatness and despatch. Milsublicatioods,

From Atkinson's Evening Post.

THE COVERNACS. a carmed dices. To make a her If she would have any objections to eat alone

She did not answer; but I thought she changed countenance, so I told her to come up and we would see what arrangement we could make?

Well my dear, you will see what deragement

'I protest, Mr. S. you are always throwing cold water on every thing I do,—but she is very amiable, however, and will do every thing I wish

But, my dear, she may be very amiable, and yet it she is a wantan of liberal education, not be

Pshaw! she is poor,' said the lady with a curl

'We'll see,' said the husband. 'When does of the lip, 'she will be glad enough to stay here when we had company." .

her to, I know she will.

willing to be your nurse.

'Day after to-morrow.'

her," inquired the husband.

speech, think you, my dean'

all the incorvenience alluded to.

ladly-like manners!

she come.

go to the city."

obliged besides."

will be made when she does come.'

he amount charged for the advertisement eviluher next at one o'clock anali Williahaa hi equity in of Real Estate, to wit, a sa d Paris, being the N winsenttining 100 arres more

Hiram Hubbard in Paris, on ther Ded down! Into 11. n'd i ten at meatgroud Dead doud don 'th' tens Hack 54, 103- 122 1 . m

You may the prest and S. Remesh Turne h. ne thed in said liveistry, by the parament of $15.4. EMORE Dept Short

Process within and for the tenth of the deep tracks year of EECKARD Proportifie

uth, late of Urbana, manal the premate state of art just delse, which be over star at bory thelias, and star at bory thelias, and some the dater cal relate say has be present afrond cent in the being facilities in out I coluin, in receive t weeks corress tell that Is belt at there, in sold to the attention back A.M. ally the proper whereal par-

AN RAMSON, Judge. Levi risme. II. Il & ster.

CTION.

ren, see called, meel onia Guland, hang farts this and ringgenul buildings, a pusture, and ruts , an malle, will be he Court House on .n. min : 13, 1839, ns blural.

L GARLAND.

Cita manta kun k tim . the 1 the will to be an elet. auf t. the fr

12.72 173 12.72 173 11.44 12.37 free the fact to a if it der, at to disperie if action or e-1 in A see Lieuw eith day I Marca cieses becautificant to to er to e wa tages . Capte. the love them ternes for

ORY, Collector

dire to a re. Il mark. ikea operationed to? $GUON_{c}$ a threshout, by giving these white to make the transfer the three that av amonos.

four Le man Rewe d for the C unity it or the premise se mermat, atten ugat, tale sauctus of Bethet in said sed at the time of and Berfiel pite atten, and the ism at the line

Els', laturex

ES,

vad und for sale. COULDEN.

the woman

'No, I am going as governess to their children.

*One of the Signers of the Declaration of Independ-

Why do you pity me?' said Josephine. 'Kase, Miss, every body speaks had of Mrs.

portunity of venting some private pique.

roprietor not being accountable for any error beyond I am very sorry, said Josephine, to hear that I'm sleepy, mama, said the soungest boy, as Josephine. Mrs. S.'s domestics give her so bad a name, but coon as ten was ended. I trust there is no truth in it. Perhaps these! Well, my dear, said the mother, I will show Could you suppose for a moment, I kept a muse? "No, nor yet be quite as much your humble; persons have given her the name of being an Miss R. where you are to sleep as soon as she No, my purse is quite inadequate to that, draw-fiseryant, thought the governess; that if you only own evil conduct.'

There must be some strange mistake about willing to give a different turn to the woman's looks, and felt for her situation. Mrs. S. never has ever been expected of her, but to educate the think he imagines a great deal. I am sure you've this my dear,' and Mr. S. to his wife after list. She is vary about any thing required of ening to an animated description of a governess manners. She is very affable and polite.

ening to an animated description of a governess, she had engaged for her children. "A lady of she had engaged for her children. "A lady of a liberal education and the daughter of an author? I fear you did not state explicitly in what capacity you wished her to come."

You know, Mr. S.' said the lady, 'our for mer governess, Miss P. wrote all the particulars to her friends before I saw her.'

The sound might have been compared to 'silver of the trible on any occasion.'

The sound might have been compared to 'silver of the trible on any occasion.'

Oh, Miss R. that spirit wont do here. I want of woman, who is willing to triake herself useful and fell I will be too glad to get away though.'

Will you write to your outies nere income? 'Oh, Miss R. that spirit wont do here. I want of woman, who is willing to triake herself useful and fell I will be too glad to get away though.'

Will you write to your friend and inform her of the children will acquire vulgarisms. You undoubtedly heard from Miss P. all that was expected to say.'

The sound might have been compared to 'silver of woman, who is willing to triake herself useful and fell I will be too glad to get away though.'

Will you write to your outies nere income? 'Not in the least,' said Miss P. but thought and fell I will be too glad to get away though.'

Will you write to your friend and inform her of the children will acquire vulgarisms. You undoubtedly heard from Miss P. all that was expected to you here,—nothing will be asked of you, here,—nothing but necessity will cause her to leave it.'

'Oh, Tom, take her along,' said the hostess, seeing him hesitate, - he's been here nearly all ter amazement, found it cost her four times the chambermaid will do that' on any terms,' What vulgarity of feeling under sum she had anticipated. Not willing to have words with the man, she quietly paid the exhor-

What hour will it be necessary to send for

No, not I, indeed, I don't approve of making count.' equals of my domestics,' said the lady, with a 'And *What would your uncle" have said to that thing or two.' A few moments more brought so she may have no trouble in the morning. Thursday to the city, (fourteen miles) passed the Sam, I'll show you what account I can give of I will point out to you, from the piazza, (rising where she wanted to be taken, said, 'I'm afraid, lowe you.'

neighbor,' cried the host, 'here's a young woman that was her name) 'and will feel myself greatly ikent my wages off for that.'

The governess was shown in the spring—a cheerfull hickory-wood fire blazed to cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was at service there; nor cousin Sue when she was a service there; nor cousin Sue when she was a universal for it was quiet dark children dressed, and sent below. The tea bell children dressed, and sent below. The tea bell know of a young lady, however, Mrs. S. whom she was a universal form the city. Josephine found Mr. S. and was much pleased with the appearance bearing. Miss R.'s tea. Josephine looked astrongly the children.

So, madain, if love for your children cannot the children cannot when she arrived. Wrs. S. whom when she arrived mrs. S. whom if you get will more than supply my place. She did not think of it, as I have no fear myself, said Josephine, rising and removing the children.

So, madain, if love for your children cannot the children cannot have the children dressed, and sent below. The tea time,—orders were sent up to have the children dressed, and sent below. The tea bell know of a young lady, however, Mrs. S. whom if you get will more than supply my place. She did not think of it, as I have no fear myself, said Josephine, rising and removing the children cannot the children to sit so near the fire-place, it is so did the lady.

Nothing particular occurred, until an bour bear the lide. No, madain, if love for your children cannot have the white supply the children to sit so near the fire-place, it is so did the lady.

No, madain, if love for your children cannot have the children to sit so near the fire-place, it is so did the lady.

No, madain, if love for your children cannot have the children to sit so near the fire-place, it is so derstand the look.

Her help, Miss, all give her a terrible name. was about to hand the first cup of ten to Jose- ly poetical, to inviging that angels pour balm up- any one sick in the house. She's a regular nigger-driver, said the hus-phine, and knit her brows to convey the idea on the weary soul, in its sleeping hours?

'She's a regular nigger-driver, said the hus-phine, and knit her brows to convey the idea on the weary soul, in its sleeping hours?

'I hope not, madam, for your sake, for the band, looking up from an almanac which he that he must not make that mistake again.—

At breaklast time, Mr. M. had not left, and of care of the children would be too much for you; held in his hand, and a rich lady should be Neither the words nor the look were lost upon course, her breaklast was brought up. It was a as she said this she thought 'I'm truly glad I've

The truth for the first time flashed upon her to great advantage, did you really think, for a pisc while I pretend to pity you. You've humind, 'I am their nurse!' So new and so painful moment Miss R. I keept a nurse!' bled me and I trust you'll be humbled you's life. 'I hope,' said the woman, 'young lady, you mind, 'I am their nurse!' So new and so painful moment Miss R. I keept a nurse!' lbled may find it so,—but when you're as old as I am, were her feelings, her head became dizzy,—and 'I could not think, for a moment, that I was for it.'

prin. She spoke with the softest, sweetest voice. the table on any occastion.

her friends before I saw her.'
Did you refer to the latter?'
No! I did not think it necessary, I only asked by the voice of the host: 'I say, neighbor, hold on—here's a young home we had company.'
Well, what reply did she make.'
Well, what reply did she make.'
Well, what reply did she maker; but I thought she change. 'Where does she wan to go?' inquired he, I conntenance, so I told her to come up and conntenance, so I told her to come up and conntenance, so I told her to come up and conntenance, are the said not have been from home as I have, nothing but necessity will cause of your here,—nothing will be asked of you here,—nothing will and to sleep in our apartment,—and this is Miss Bell's but what she was perfectly willing to do.'

I did not see Miss P, but in her letter, she was not young, site had lived long end nothing which would convey an idea that she was any thing else, than governess to your family. Did you see the letter, Mrs. S ?' inquired here.'

Where does she wan to go?' inquired he.

'Where does she wan to go?' inquired he.

'Where does she wan to go?' inquired he.

'Where does she wan to go?' inquired here.'

The same evening Mrs. P. worte to the friends would not a long of you here,—nothing the hot was perfectly willing to do.'

Miss P, was not young, she had in the letter, she was any thing else, than gover nm rather fatigued with my janut." 'Well,' said the lady, 'I will show you your "Well, Miss, I gue to I can take you along,"—and achool room,—here you will have your charge being debared from society, and filling a menial's She wrote entirely with reference to herself the make any of their flash pay well for it if I self at will always have it to your situation, but had too much policy to make any of their flash pay well for it if I self at will always have it to your situation, but had too much policy to make any of their flash pay well for it if I self at will always have it to your situation, but had too much policy to make any of their flash pay well for it if I self at will always have it to your situation.

'Of course,' thought Josephine.

words with the man, she quietly paid the exhorbitant charge.

When Josephine was left alone, she sat with bitant charge.

There, said the man to his companion, didn't get part of Polly's wages out of them, real sites.

On raising her eyes, they rested on a large, old driving off and jingling the change in his posket.

Twonder what them 'ere folks thinks will believe in the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the street of the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the street of the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment. I say, the sweets and bless come of them in the day of Judgment are sweets.

On the sweet of the sweets and bless come of the sweets and bless come of them.

am surprised you did not promise to send for thirsty, and ye give me drink; naked, and ye give he height.

'I did not know of any when I engaged—as the fallen into such a deep sleep the night the gentleman was in delicate heath. I did not thow of any when I engaged—as the fallen into such a deep sleep the night the gentleman was in delicate heath. I did not thow of any when I engaged—as the fallen into such a deep sleep the night the gentleman was in delicate heath. I did not thow of any when I engaged—as the fallen into such a deep sleep the night the gentleman was in delicate heath. I did not thow of any when I engaged—as the fallen into such a deep sleep the night the gentleman was in delicate heath. I did not thow of any when I engaged—as the fallen into s entering with her clothes on her arm, 'she wants said the lady. 'Let me alone for that, Sam,-I'll show you a you to bring our clothes in your room at night, rery door where the intended governess resided, that 'ere small change,' said 'Tom, handing him and walking out,) where the most pleasant walks I fear I shall sink under it.' and allowed her to take the steamer and have the reins and springing from the wagon. Herejare for the children. I wish them to be a greati from these walks, Mrs. S. went into the nursery thing at this crisis. get any one to take you there. You see as how poor body, in answers to my prayers,' said the you will find, needles, collars and tapes, to repair with a woman.

We are all plain country folks here about, and woman.

With a work-oasket in ner and. There, was to take you there. You see as how poor body, in answers to my prayers,' said the you will find, needles, collars and tapes, to repair this P suppose you write to your friend, and in-take charge of the children. We are all plain country folks here about, and woman. part of his harangue, a wagon drove up. 'I say, want.'

neighbor,' cried the host, 'here's a young woman 'Ah! Tommy, but gold wont save the soul, expected from her in this family. A family, stylare under to him.'

going your way, can't you give her a lift? She's you know,—and my Master bids me pray for cd one of the very first in our republic, and bewilling to pay you, I reckon, looking inquiringly those who injure me. I will always remember longing to the select few called "good society." since you had the charge my children that you dren. She was never asked for the table after-them in my prayers. I owe them no grudge. You Josephine collected her tittle group-heard had then interest as well as my own at beart, and the governess.

'Most certainly, I am,' said Josephine, (for hat was her name) 'and will feel myself greatly shiged besides.'

'Well, 'twas tarnal hard usage, any how, 'Where do you want to go,' said the man.

'To Mr. S.'s, three miles distant.'

'To Mr. S.'s, three miles distant.'

'I am very averse to think otherwise.'

'You do me justice, mad my, said Miss P. all children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the lowest satisfaction to find they appreciated ber kinduess tiful supply) to roll down precient before she country, would sarve a woman this fashion.'

'To Mr. S.'s, three miles distant.'

'A few days before Josephine following the left, a violent instinct.'

'To do me justice, mad my own at nearly, and mad then interest as wen as my own at nearly, and ward, but with one exception, but her duty to the ward, but with one exception, but her duty to the her trials might be, the cociety of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the lowest hand always a pleasing the cloud, for that.'

'You do me justice, mad my, said Miss P, all children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the lowest hand the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of little children was faithfully fulfilled, and she had the offect of dispelling the cloud, for the toricity of which she had always a pleasity of the toricity of which she had always a pleasity of the li being: but as boiling water soonest freezzes; to justice, I feel as if I were about to part with my cracking his whip and riding off.

The kind, affectionate heart of Josephine, sunk within her, as she thought, 'Oh! can this be cross, with a condescending smile, and then true!' She composed herself, however, and turned immediately, and entered into conversal favorite.'

The kind, affectionate heart of Josephine, sunk 'How do you do, Miss R,' said she to the goving such an awfill thander store!'

"In M.—Mrs. S's brother,—has come to stay the sun as he drew up his brows, negro fishion, when making an effort to of which Mrs. E.'s school, or the school site enjoyment in such a second at this—virus sing the grand and sublime, always creater pleasure.

The kind, affectionate heart of Josephine, sunk 'How do you do, Miss R,' said she to the goving such an awfill thander store!'

"In M.—Mrs. S's brother,—has come to stay the sun and then all night,' stammered the man, as he drew up his brows, negro fishion, when making an effort to of which Mrs. E.'s school, or the school site enjoyment in such a second at this—virus sing the grand and sublime, always creater pleasure.

"In M.—Mrs. S's brother,—has come to stay the school of which Mrs. E.'s school, or the school of which Mrs. E.'s directress of, you could be presented and sublime, always creater pleasure. said to the hostess, who had been calling after tion with her husband, as if to let her know at the man, but in value, "That young man appears once that she considered her but a secondary glance. And this, thought she, as the waiter to feel himself injured by the family I am going on their establishment. 'Had you any closed the door, is what my father gave me a lib-among.

'Maybe you're some kin to them?' said the way as she raised the teapor to pour out to develope and cultivate my mind, that I might every confidence in her indepent.'

'I am a said coward,' said the lady, as she raised the teapor to pour out to develope and cultivate my mind, that I might every confidence in her indepent.' be an outcast from society—banished from the every confidence in her judgment, The only difficulty I had, was in getting a table of my fellows, as unworthy a place among the conveyance. The people at the landing are not them. To keep the children from the table, is not the monve, for they are seat for, while I am is in Philadelphia; her sister has had a severe covering her eyes with her hard. I not the monve, for they are sent for, while I am is in Philadelphia; her sister has had a severe. The tea-bell rung—Josephin, was invited down left alone. She exclaimed alond, 'Oh! can it be attack of illness, and she went on to attend her. The tea-bell rung—Josephin, was invited down and she had been to tex, her first impulse was to refer the doubt to tex, her first impulse was to refer the forget the great hurry to get away,"

'In two weeks.'

weeks ofter her father's indeed her life was des-

Well, dear hearts, I pity you; poor young his eyes toward Mrs. S. who, as she was doing the herself to sleep. She awake refreshed,—the parired of; but for six months her health has behonors of the table, had of course no time to un- good, have often peace and strength administered came quite established. erstand the look.

To Mr. S. said the lady to the waiter, who which the wicked know nothing of. Is it mere-here. I have such a natural aversion to having above that business, according to my notion.— Josephine, for little indignities (if meant) offered wet morning, the children did not walk. Mrs. never known what it was to be sick in the house portunity of venting some private pique.

S. came into the nursery, to give some directions. of such an unfeeling monster in the nursery, and the children did not walk. Mrs. S. I find you do not keep a nurse, said of the children wet morning. The children did not walk. Mrs. of such an unfeeling monster in the house some directions. Of such an unfeeling monster in the house such and the children did not walk. Mrs. S. I find you do not keep a nurse, said of the children did not walk. I have an op-

Mrs. S. who will feel as much interested my 'Keep a nurse and governess too, Miss R. | health as you do.' ing in her head, which showed her double chin know it was all to carre my own views, and des-

I reckon you'll know the truth of that proverb, scarcely concious what she did, she mechanical to be their narse, madam. My sister, is at prewhat every bodys cays must be true."

If followed Mrs S, who lead the way to their character, in Mr. B.'s family,—his children are the in this stination which husband says, are not exsame age of yours; and I assure you, nothing pected in all families, from a governess, but I they are in hed; or do you prefer retiring? said she before she sent it, but as I requested her to state particulars, as she knew the friends would not To Mr. S.'s! said the young man, with a with a voice which conveyed to a sensitive mind, all the particulars,—I thought, of course, she constent to her coming, and she would in this from that she greatly preferred her choosing to retire, did so, indeed she told me she had. I thought, case, perhaps, lose her situation; at all events the likeness it was Mrs. S.'s sister.'

I prefer retiring, Mrs. S.' said, Josephine, 'as however, with all her professions, she was in a have some difficulty about it. She stated, therefore, that she was delightfully situated as gover-The fact was simply this, Miss P. was a ma- wess in the family, and regretted leaving, &c.

I'll make any of their flash pay well for it, if I self at night. You need not trouble yourself, wies among the rich, by stating her feelings.— convenience, or Miss R.'s happiness; and this ride them, I tell you, and Josephine, to her ut. Miss R. to make the fire in the morning, the She did not speak to Mrs. S. but wrote to her duplicity was the cause of the unpleasant and friends all the particular of the situation, request-mortifying misunderstanding, ing them, as soon as psssible, to procure for her But to return to the conversation between Mrs her, inquired the husband.

Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her, indeed! I don't mean to spoil
Send for her mind, & she bad made him a promise two it woul Fot at all agree with my arrangements one of the teachers, (fidge.) Mrs. S. was great.

Som, have rich folks got the same bible as poor for the teachers, (fidge.) Mrs. S. was great.

To be sure they have, said the other.

"To be sure they have, said the other.

"To be sure they have, said the other.

"Well, that's queer, anyhow, for I read in my bended knee,—retired and answered—'Miss P I do not the fide in the mean to the fide into tears

"To be sure they have, said the other.

"Well, that's queer, anyhow, for I read in my bended knee,—retired and answered—'Miss P I do not the fide in the fide in the fide in the fide in the fide are expected to do nothing but Josephine had prayed, carnestly prayed, for humility, but she never found it so difficult to be According to resolution, Mrs. S. went on them before the door of a miserable hat. 'Now, Miss R.' said the lady, after breakfast, I suppose I will be left with the entire charge of the develope the character—and even when pride there civildren again; and my nerves are so weak, is distinctly seen, and guarded against, it but turns, assumes another form, and dwells and Tassure you, madan, said Misss P. 'nothing reigns in the heart still. None can know how Polly, there's a present for you, said he, open-ideal in the open air, -perhaps two walks would but a promise which I deem sacred, would over deceitful above all things' the heart is, until they When the governess arrived at the landing, ing the cottage door, and handing her the money be sufficient, but I would greatly prefer them takes be made inquiries for a conveyance, but the Bless and thank you neighbor, but,"— the miserable public house, hearing Oh, it's only part of the wages them 'ere S.'s When Josephine and the children returned this crief.

Three weeks alarsed before Wee S. bearing out this crief.

Three weeks alarsed before Wee S. bearing out this crief.

Three weeks alarsed before Wee S. bearing out this crief. flock, looking around upon the children. Flat- ful opposition they will learn, how totally averso young woman, you'll find it no easy matter to Well, the Lord has softened their hearts to a with a work-basket in her hand. 'Here, Miss. S. replied with subdued feeling, Well, person whom she thought would be suitable to

Mrs. S. thought she hit on the very personhas no coaches to 'commodate folks,—every one; 'No, not they have no hearts to soften. Now wardrobe," pointing to a vellow painted press, hops when he hears you are unxious to remain, she was not bandsome, which she was heartly which accupied one side of the narsery Just-be may get some one in your place.'

The sum of the part of the very person-base no coaches to 'commodate folks,—every one; 'No, not they have no hearts to soften. Now wardrobe," pointing to a vellow painted press, hops when he hears you are unxious to remain, she was not bandsome, which she was heartly which accupied one side of the narsery Just-be may get some one in your place.'

The sum of the part of the very person-base no coaches to 'commodate folks,—every one; 'No, not they have no hearts to soften. Now wardrobe," pointing to a vellow painted press, hops when he hears you are unxious to remain, she was not bandsome, which she was heartly which accupied one side of the narsery Just-be may get some one in your place.'

The sum of the part of the very person-base of the commodate folks,—every one; 'No, not they have no hearts to soften. Now wardrobe," pointing to a vellow painted press, hops when he hears you are unxious to remain, she was not bandsome, which she was heartly which accupied one side of the narsery Just-be was heartly with the first plant of the part of the very person-base of the part of the very person-base of the press, hops when he hears you are unxious to remain, she was not bandsome, which she was heartly was been dear of the part of th thunder storm comes up, and us the lightning

'Oh! thought Josephine, as soon as chee words were utt. M. this trancherous boart. I

'I am a sad coward,' said distante : februis :

They are human beings, whom kind treatment and removed the almost natouched repost. She would make very civil, thought the governess and removed the almost natouched repost. She Perfect health, now; she was very ill at the Post. While the storm continued she was treated. "She need not have been subjected to their put the children to bed, and again retired to weep, time of her brother's death, which happened three with marky i politene manifestation should be be been subjected to their put the children to bed, and again retired to weep, time of her brother's death, which happened three with marky i politene manifestation. A fort.

man, with an inquiring glance, 'you look enough the tea. like Mrs. S. to be her sister.' 'No,' said Josephine, 'I am no relation.'

Going there to make a visit, I supposed ?' said 'Oh, they are perfect bears,' said the lady.

radeness,' thought the husband, as he glanced

A Fact

for the conscience who is only stimulated to duty | 'You don't say so,' said the son, 'how did she | by fear with the clouds disappeared, also the

the lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever. The day before the new governess arrived, R. of it. The look of joy, nay, ecstacy, which Tom G. drove there about three weeks ago. beamed from the fine expressive eyes of Joseyou shall feel my power until the last moment. to take her to town? I promised it before I saw respect and consideration—her hours flew on ter his return, Mrs. L. received the following let. ry in which it closed. Miss. R your will have to go down in the stage, |you? as we are going to send the carriage for Miss F. our future governess.

I would greatly prefer going in the steamer, anid Josephine.

'Oh, that you can't do, as we have no covey-auce to send you to the landing." 'Well, I can go in the stage,' said Josephine -I believe the stage does not pass here.

'No, it passes about a quarter of a mile from better leave here by half past nine."

In the morning the children clung around Josephine, she breathed a silent prayer, that the young men. Josephine remembered them us blessing of their heavenly father might rest upon soon as they entered. them, and upon their parents; and oh, may their mother be brought to a better mind. This was a prayer Christian charity, but she did not have seen them before. know in this prayer she had asked for trials and 'I have,' said Josephine, looking at them with afflictions to rest on their mother, for these are an inclination of the head. the fire which purify the heart.

When she arrived at the farm house, she was greatly surprised to hear that the stage never matters, kase as how I ain't quite a highway robpassed there until two o'clock. She turned to ber. the waiter, who had brought her trunk, 'There

'Yes, ma'am, said the man, she did know what time the stage passed but'-'But what?' said Josephine, for the first time during the whole affair feeling indignant. 'She expects the new governess there at ten o'clock.

Josephine was silent, but the flush of indignation suffused her checks.

'If you wish to return ma'am, until two o'clock, for you, it will be quite safe here.'

'No, ma'am, I don't want to return,' said Josephine. I would much rather remain here, as she looked upon the kind-hearted expression of the woman's face."

'Oh, ma'am, I am sure you're heartily welcome, come in, if you can make yourself contented here, you are heartily welcome.'

can make myself contented any where, to amuse yourself, while I attend to my dairy, trick of mine. for you know, Miss, we country folks all have The new go to work.' What real politeness under a rough examining the children Mrs. S found out what throwing up her veil. garb, thought Josephine, as she said,

'I am greatly obliged by your kindness.' very much like Mrs. R. that I lived with before I was married.'

'Well, I don't know but what she does' 'I have a great mind,' said the wife, 'to ask her her name, when I go in again - excuse me, Miss, said she, entering some time after, but you look so much like the best friend I ever had, I thought I would ask you if you were any rela tion to her-Mrs. R. of L. 'I am her daughter."

'Her daughter? which daughter?' 'Josephine.'

'Oh! my dear child! Husband here's Jose-

'Miss R.' said he I will explain matters—
'wife you are so overjoyed you forget that the young lady don't know you or what you mean.' My wife, continued the man, 'was nurse in her expressive face showed the effect produced your morther's family, when you was a child.-We were married from there, and I believe my

'Oh! Miss Josephine,' said the woman, 'your how's my time.' mother was my best friend-oh! she was an angel, Miss, she was indeed the friend to the ted in the cause of education generally, I take poor and needy; none in distress ever went to the liberty of asking if you know of any young poor and needy; none in distress ever went to the liberty of asking if you know of any young Josephine, Mr. L. was prepared to see an origin-gave a majority of seventy-nine for Everett."

The Senate stands 15 to 15, and 10 vacants coffin, would have melted the heart of a stone, - You had the goodness to recommed one to me, film of ignorance, he could discern a MIND. said she, as she took up the corner of her apron Miss R-Mrs. S. is my name. and wiped her eyes. Josephine wept-those 'I did, madam, recommend Miss R It was tears were as a refreshing shower after a hot your brother, I think, called. sultry day.

'I am afraid, Miss Josephine, you were not well used at Mrs. S.'s, excuse me for speaking so plain, but, I can't but feel interested for any of your mother's children.

I mistook the situation in Mrs. S.'s family, said Josephine, 'I heard it was a governess that,' that,' they wanted, and found they wanted one who would be nurse also.'

'Indeed!' said the farmer, 'that would be a pretty story, any of Mrs. R.'s family a nurse to dressing the children, and mending their cloththeir children. All their people give them a bad es.' name; oh, Miss, it takes the poor to find out Allow me, Mrs. S.' said the directress, with think of it, my uncle is in quest of an under Bills. We are not able to send an Agent round to the bester of a Thraching Machine, and so badiy mutiwho the rale ladies and gentleman are. And sixty years' experience, to give it as my decided clerk. How would it do to place him there, and collect the sums due us, and must therefore request all third that amputation was necessary, which was perwho the rate latter and gentleman are. And sixty years experience, to give it as my decided controlled that an interest and content the sums are used to have it in my power opinion, that you will never find a lady of Miss let him have the advantage of attending school in indebted to forward a part or all of the amount due formed by Drs. Adams and Goodno. He is now doing to show my respects for your parent's memory R,'s education and talents willing to fill the place the afternoon and evening You know all their immediately, by Mail (mailed in presence of the Post-well, wagon, and drive you down to town. I have son, with a common school education, who will nothing but a common country wagon myself, but do all you require, who is able to teach your chil-

'No, no, it will be no trouble to do any thing years of infancy than in after age,' for any of your father's children. Besides my subscription money thrown away.' son would never forgive me if I did not take thought Mrs. S. 'as she changed the conversayou; he was a boy when I was married to this tion, to disguise her chagrin.' wife-for she's my second-but he was old the farmer, entering his son's door.

ber Mr. R.'s family, don't you?"

Mrs. S. went into the nursery, and apprised Miss new idea. 'I do believe it is the young lady age, talents, nor piety.

"To be sure I will. There goes Tom now, I'll call him in and surprise him a little. Tom, 'Yes, well, was'nt she her sister ?'

here, at ten o'clock in the morning-you had daughter such a trick, but she'll not be the loser, husband broke the silence by reading aloud. I warrant you, if my name's TomG.

The farmer returned home with both the relation of mine, Thomas G. I believe you

This is my son, Miss R and this is a distant rate, said Tom-but Miss I mean to explain

He then explained why he charged her-thinkmust be some mistake, Mrs. S. could not have ing it was Mrs. S.'s sister, but left out the part, themselves to a new establishment.' said Mr. S. respectful regards to Mr. L. of giving the whole of the sum received to Polly; to her husband, as the carriage advanced. this part his friend supplied. She was greatly! amused at the originality of the man, and from and making a low bow to a lady and gentleman several remarks he made, notwithstanding the within. idioms frequently introduced she said, inwardly, 'here's a bright jewel if it had been polished,'

She spent a most delightful day; the farmer's wife told her many interesting anecdotes, respectng her mother's benevolence, and facts which one never heard before, and she seemed, within tempt said the farmer's wife, 'I will keep your trunk a few hours, to have gained a new existance, or either to be brought back to her roiginal existence. She parted from her kind friend with wealth by marriage. scelings of regret, and felt and said, this has been the happiest day I have spent since my father's death,'

As the farmer left her at her residence in the married a greater heiress. city, he handed her the following note:

Respeckted Mis-I send you your own, I ain't got book larnen nor scool edication that's sartan, where I find kind feelings, said Josephine, and but for all that I know what's what. My mother had you observed her character in its true light. I am very much obliged to you for your invita- was a christan, Mis, and she used to say Tommy. She is a highly gifted woman, and is now placed says she, always do the rite thing, and then Godilly Providence in a situation which she is emi-Let me take your bonnet, Miss, and here are and your own hart will be your best friends. 1 some books, if you can find any worth reading hope you will think no more about that foolish THOMAS G-

The new governess stayed one week. Upon she had lost when she had parted with Josephine 'Husband,' said the woman, when she had left this one I have does not fill her place, but money steps. 'You are welcome to my house again,' the room, 'don't you think that young lady looks will do any thing. I will go in person to Mrs. E. and get her to recommend me another. She accordingly laid the plans thus-I'll go and subcribe to a benevolent society, of whom Mrs. E. is directress, this will pave the way.'

She put on her most pleasing smile, and she was shown into the drawing room of Mrs. E. I am a stranger to you, madam, but feeling greatly interested in the cause you represent, Illitrue.

the sofa. 'Our society will be greatly indebted to you, hpine R. the husband entered-Josephine looked said the benevolent old lady, raising her spectacles. 'Our funds are very low at present.'

'Indeed! if that is the case, I will double the sum I intended subscribing 'You are very kind,' said the directoress, while by this apparent benevolence. She handed her the subscription book, pen and wife here loved your mother as well as if she had link, she looked at it, signed her name and sum coach some day." in the most beautiful hand-writing, and thought

Knowing Mrs. E that you are much interes-

'It was."

'I was very sorry Miss R. could not remain. 'Oh! Miss R. was entirely above her station,' said Mrs. S. drawing herself up.

Excuse me, Mrs. S. but Miss R. is very fond of teaching; she surely cannot feel herself above with them; but she felt quite above washing and lane.

he's got what you may call a one horse carriage, dren at present, for I hear they are young, but dietate.' then you are not sure that your are laying a solid I feel myself greatly obliged to you, for the foundation for future education and usefulness. kind offer, but I fear it would be giving you Depend upon it, madam, it is of more importance to have a talented and pions teacher, during their wife—for she's my second—but he was old Before she left she was informed by Mrs. E. this Christian principle, 'What thy hand findeth can wait until afternoon, I will get the wagon ness in Mr. N.'s f mily. This intelligence cause the day of small things.'

golden wings. She spent in their family a most ter: delightful year.

'You jest,' said the lady, were taking an afternoon walk, an elegant car-lift mankind : riage was seen driving up the road.

I think some of our friends have been treating I think they have,' said he, raising his hat,

"Who are they?" said the wife, not recognising the lady's countenance through the reil. husband, with emphasis.

'Oh, mly them,' said she, with apparent con-

'Yes, wife, only one of our most able statesmen, who has lately come in possession of great

'How Indicrous wealth indeed!'

'Oh, yes, she was always a great favorite yours, said the wife, with great vexation. nently calculated to fill.

The farmers's wife looked surprised to see an elegant carriage stop before her door. 'Don't you remember me,' said Josephine,

Oh, my dear Miss R I am very, very glad to -but thought there's plenty like her, to be sure; see you, said she, as the footman lowered the said she, throwing open the door of a small but neat parlor.' "I see, my good friend," said the husband-ceive you, and introduce you to Mrs. L.

for me not for her.

child, but here comes my old man, how delightyoung men of the State, who embrace the principles became the danger of suddenly dropping down into ed he will be to find his words are so soon come to pass. 'Miss Josephine will ride in her own active life.

We recent to leave a section for the State, who embrace the principles became the danger of suddenly dropping down into the farmer and his wife—their son Samuel and date, a majority of 440.

The footman, as they were about to drive off, presented the farmer's wife with a parcel, and before she had time to ask its contents, he sprang on the carriage, and they were out of sight in a minute. On opening the parcel, she found it continued two dresses, suitable for her wear, with billet, requesting they might be accepted from her friend, and also a bank note, which she was requested to hand to poor old Polly.

'Oh, it would be admirable," said Josephine, would cheerfully enter into the plan. 'Yes, that he would,' said the nephew.

Augustus Frederick was a man of wealth, and the every day charities of life; but acted upon

My dear Madam -

ull the good in his power, Please present my

I remain, Dear Madam. With grateful affection, Your humble obd't serv't.

THOMAS G-Years rolled on, Josephine become the mother of five lovely children—she had thus far superin-'Frederick Augustus L. and lady,' replied the tended their education alone, but as her domestic duties increased, and her station in society of wretchedness which has never been equalled? become a more responsible one; for her, husband now held an important office in government, she thought it advisable to engage a governess.

We must not do this rashly, but prayerfully, said Josephine, in a conversation with her hasband on the subject. 'We know the first im-'If my dear, education, talents and moral worth pressions are the most lasting, our children are are the true riches, then no man in America ever still young, and it is not only necessary to secure an educated and talented lady, but one of moral worth and piety; that the foundation for their ascfulness here, and happiness hereafter may be

> 'My fervent prayer shall be,' said the husband embracing his wife; 'that their Heavenly Fother may bless them with just such a governess as my own Josephine has been." C. M. P.

OXFORD DEMOCRAT.

PARIS, NOVEMBER 19, 1839. MASSACHUSETTS REDEEMED.

The year 1830 has been a glorious one for Democ racy. The astonishing victories of our brothren in to do, the amount cannot be less than twenty thousand." the different States over special privileges has given

Returns from 208 towns, as given in the Boston Post of Thomas, as well as having perused his note to ery town in the State except eight, which last year friends that his constitution will not be able to over-

The Senate stands 15 to 15, and 10 vacancies. The House promises to have a majority of Demo-

Last year the aggregate vote of the State stood 93,009, the largest vote ever given. This year, so far, 104,342, making an increase of 11,333.

CF TO SUBSCRIBERS WHO ARE IN

Arrents. In

posites" to go to except the pockets of those indebted and give her Electoral vote for Martin Van Buren. I think with you, my dear, that he should to us for the Democrat, Advertising, and Job Work, master] or otherwise. The sums are small, and most until compelled to by law. Unless remittances are priation of $2,000 for that object. made promptly we shall be under the necessity of

Since banking by chartered companies was started were for getting blue, in the discussion. Post. the history of commerce is the mere record of a series indexisting the straing of the people, it has been the studies; and by fidelity and industry, gave amount of the poor and unfortunate, felt deeply ple satisfaction to his employer.

It don't know, Aunt Beeca maybe?

And she, who had a supreme contempt for the opinion of the poor and unfortunate, felt deeply ple satisfaction to his employer.

To be sure I do.'

The scheme was promptly put into execution, or the labits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the news of the studies; and by fidelity and industry, gave amplified to his employer.

At the end of three years, he returned to his imposed upon the people, and it has been borne simply of genuine grief. The stream may beak forth, and the there are not the towards the there are not from the strength of the towards that there are not the towards the towards the forest has proved to the towards the forest has been the heaviest burden.

The scheme was promptly put into execution, or the labits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the people, it has proved the source of the habits of the peo of convulsions and calamities. Under every form of ion of those she did value. The rich, the great, native village, opened a store, and settled there, because its influences are so subtle that they are not not from the strength of the torrent, but from the with the determination to benefit the people in traced to their right source.

She had entered the drawing room of the every way his acquired information made him! The explosion of the Royal Bank of France, after dy's kindness.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and in lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady was the same unfeeling tyrant as ever.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it lady is the big house, and was stopping at our house for could not do some things. With her most haught to do every thing—she left it, knowing that money young men, and as they were not willing to attend without paying for it, he purchased books such directives good morning was rerene and beautiful, and it impored.

The morning was rerene and beautiful, and it is the big house, and was stopping at our house for could not do some things. With her most haught to do every thing—she left it, knowing that money young men, and as they were not willing to attend to every thing—she left it, knowing that money young men, and as they were not willing to attend the big house, and was stopping at our house for the whole country the same was a stopping to a stopping ty look she hade the aged directress good morn-with the sum accumulated, and formed a library, are filled with horror of the restor to this day. It 'At Mr. S.'s?' said the son, as if revolving a jug, for pride, when wounded, regards neither which was free to all who wished to avail themnew idea. 'I do believe it is the young lady age, talents, nor piety.

I'm G. drove there about three weeks ago.'

Yes, she has been there about that time,' said gentleman and lady—and under their roof she indeed, in a very short time, the whole place age on occount of the delusion in which it was conducted and the available in the same conducted and the same conducte phine, was not lost upon Mss S, but thought she, the father. 'I suppose you'll lend your wagon was by all, and at all times, treated with marked sumed quite another aspect. About a year at with which it was conducted, and the expanded misc-

> And so from the time that the Bank of England was In the mean time, Mrs. S. was continually I send you with this, a catalogue of our Vil-country has found no peace. A succession of distresdo you remember that young lady you took to changing her governess, with the hope of finding lage Library-I know it will give you pleasure sing revulsions, preceded by the same cause, an inflachanging her governess, with the nope of inding large Library—I allow it will give you proceed by the same cause, and one willing to be a good nurse. The children's to hear that it is now in successful operation,—tion of the paper currency, and followed by the same dispositions had been injured by this injudicious My evening class still continues (to me) very inference and I find that 'No, she was the governess there, and is the treatment, and they were emphatically growing teresting; my students improve, and I find that daughter of Mr. R. whom you have often heard worse every day. Mrs S. had just dismissed her imparting is an excellent way of acquiring knowlike the periodical visitation of a plague. In the years need to be provided in the periodical visitation of a plague. In the years need to be provided in the periodical visitation of a plague. In the years need to be periodical visit Well, I am readly sorry I served a gentleman's to be done in obtaining the ninth—when her our Sunday school is also much improved; our are told by Parnell, Thornton, Ricardo, McColloughelaughter such a trick, but she'll not be the loser husband broke the silence by reading aloud. Sittle church is nearly finished; and we are make and other British writers, the commercial affairs of Married, on Thursday morning, at Trinity ing arrangements to engage a minister who will Great Britain were thrown into the wildest confusion. Church, by the Right Rev. Bishop—, Fred-officiate alternately at the three villages. The causes, in every instance, have been the enorm-The causes, in every instance, have been the enormerick Augustus S. Esq. to Josephine, daughter I return my grateful acknowledgments to your-jous abuses of power committed by the great banking self and excellent husband, for the knowledge I monopoly of the kingdom. Either its own grasping have been able to impart to others. If I have cupidity or the still more insatiable wants of the gov-Well my dear, read it yourself, handing her done any good here, you, under Providence, have fernment of which it was the miserable tool, has forthe paper.
>
> The have, said Josephine, looking at them with a inclination of the head.
>
> The have is a few more and shown in the paragraph, and felt even more with you, while in New York, on the subject of an inclination of the head.
>
> The have is a few more in the paragraph, and felt even more with you, while in New York, on the subject of by the usual train of speculation, extravagance, failure that he is a few more in the paper.
>
> The have is a few more in the paper.
>
> The have in the paper.
>
> The many conversations with you, while in New York, on the subject of by the usual train of speculation, extravagance, failure that he is a few more with a determination of the crisis of 1814. The failures that then occording to the crisis of 1814. The failures that then occording to the crisis of 1814. The failures that then occording the crisis of 1814. The failures that then occording to the crisis of 1814. spired me with a determination of living to bene- ing of the crisis of 1814. "The failures that then occurred were the more distressing, because they affect-One man my accomplish a great deal by dology ed the industrious and poor classes, and frequently swallowed up in an instant the fruits of a long life of laborious and unremitting exertion. Thousands upon thousands who had, in 1813, considered themselves alliuent, found they were destitute of all property, and sunk, as if by enchantment and without any fault of their own, into the chyss of poverty." Says Mr. Horver, at the same time, in his place in the House of Commons, "This crisis has given rise to a universality

> > The Bank of the United States went into operation in the spring of 1817. Its very first movement was, with less than three millions of specie in its wants; to expand its issues to the amount of forty millions of dollars. The immediate effect was an abundance of money, a rise of prices, reckless enterprises, and fortunes made in a day. The honest and regular efforts of pains-taking industry were laughed to scorn, while splendid mansions adorned the cities, and brilliant o. unipages rolled through the streets. Hat at length the and of this apparent prosperity came. The Bank drivon to extremities, resorted to the most rigid contraction, prices fell, traders became bankrupt, the rich were reduced to poverty, the poor turned out of house and home, and a general stagnation of business proluced a general suffering. Niles, in his Register of the 7th of August, 1819, says:—It is estimated there are twenty thousand persons daily seeking work in Philadelphia; in New York, ten thousand able bodied men are wandering about, and looking for it, and adding to these the destitute women who have nothing

Under this same institution, which may be regarded us the greatest pleasure; but it was in reserve for as the representative of the whole banking system, you have made a mistake. You take this young Massachusetts, the old Bay State—so long wedded to scenes varying from those just described only in the lady for Miss R. but I am most happy to unde- Federalism and Chartered Monopolies, to cap the cli- greater or less intensity of the public distress have The woman looked as if doubting what she max. And nobly she has done it. Her Democratic been witnessed in this country during the years 1821, heard. Josephine assured her what she heard was "fought the good fight," and they deserve, 1825, 1828, 1834, 1837, and 1839. A perpetual altergreatly interested in the cause you represent, I true.

called to contribute my mite and become an annual subscriber, as she said this, she seated hernual subscriber, as she said this, she seated hernual subscriber, as she said this, she seated hernual subscriber, as she said this, she seated herself in the most polite, easy, graceful manner on there was a black of the success. It is a victory indeed, and is owing to the experience. We have at no time possessed a currency self in the most polite, easy, graceful manner on there was a blessing in store for all your mother's parity of those principles under which they fought. of soundness and stability. There has never been in There certainly was a great blessing in store some of the Federalists assert to console themselves, and immovable confidence which is the only source it is not owing to the local questions of the day, as the operations of trade any warrant for that implicit for one of my mother's children,' said the hus- in their so disastrous defeat, for it will be seen that of sure and substantial wealth. We have been susthe Democratic gain does not come from the Federal pended, to use an expression of Adam Smith's, on You mistake, my good friend, the blessing was loss, as Mr. Everett's vote is not diminished from last "the Dedalian wings of paper money," and the higher You certainly have a treasure in my dear year more than 1000 or 1500; but it comes from the we have permitted them to carry us the more fearful

We regret to learn, as we do from the Gospel Ban-After spending some time in conversation with of the 15th inst. give Morton the Descoratic candi- and one of the Publishers of the Age, and Clerk of the Thomas G. entered. Having heard a description The Post says, "This comprises the result from er- been, seriously ill, and fears are entertained by his come the disease.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

There is some doubt concerning several counties in New York, but it is supposed that the opposition will have a majority in both branches of the Legislature It will be a majority, however, greatly diminished from that of last year. In the popular vote too, the Democratic gain is highly encouraging. The City gave a Democratic majority of rising 1800, making a great We are in great want of money to enable us to pay gain from last spring. In 1837, the Federal majority Well, my dear Frederick, what do you think for our Paper, Type, Ink, &c, and also to pay our help, in the State was 17,000. Last year it was reduced to No. I do not speak of teaching—the children of my protegee, Thomas G.? said Josephine to Board Bills, and many other Bills which necessarily 10,000. This year it will be not far from 4,000. improved very much, for the short time she was her husband, as they turned the corner of the accrue in the publication of a newspaper, and no "de- Next year the State will unquestionably be redeemed.

with all the warmth her benevolent heart could with but little inconvenience, and there are those, we dietate.'

And your uncle is so benevolent. I know he are sorry to say, who appear determined not to pay A committee of the House of Representatives of

The Abolitionists should be called the Episto-"suspending" the publication of the Democrat until lary Party; we never knew men so eager to write also a Christian philanthropist—a character but we can collect our honest dues, which will injure us letters as they are—they are eternally at it. At their last meeting a resolution was passed against the inhuman practice of using black ink-several

The news of the Battle of Bunker Bill, was liweakness of the flood gates, yal Bank of France, after nriched and then actually 👸 ands of persons, worked riple of the whole country by retom to this day. It John Laws's Mississippi ned a world wide infamy, which it began, the news , and the expanded mise.

the Bank of England was noment, the trade of that A succession of distresthe same cause, an infland followed by the same and ruin, has affected it fa plague. In the years 5, 1836, and 1839, as we n, Ricardo, McCollough e commercial affairs of to the wildest confusion. e, have been the enormed by the great banking Either its own grasping tiable wants of the govmiserable tool, has forns, which were followed od, extravagance, failure McCullough, in speakhe failures that then ocing, because they affectclasses, and frequently e fruits of a long life of rtion. Thousands upon considered themselves tute of all property, and nd without any fault of verty." Says Mr. Horplace in the House of on rise to a universality ver been equalfed? ites went into operation Ty first movement was,

Especie in its vanies to unt of forty millions of ct was an abundance of es enterprises, and for-

nest and regular efforts laughed to scorn, while cities, and brilliant ca ects. Hot at length the came. The Bank drivthe most rigid contracme bankrupt, the rielt oor turned out of house tation of business proiles, in his Register of -It is estimated there daily seeking work in u thousand able bodied looking for it, and admen who have nothing than twenty thousand." chich may be regarded thole banking system, described only in the public distress have during the years 1821. 2. A perpetual afterto the most oppressive marked its commercial c possessed a currency ere has never been in arrant for that implicit ch is the only source from the Gospel Ban-- of Augusta, Editor Age, and Clerk of the nd for some time has re entertained by his Il not be able to over-

We have been sus-of Adam Smith's, on oney," and the higher

y us the more fearful

y dropping down into

CTION.

ng several counties in at the opposition will s of the Legislature cally diminished from vote too, the Demog. The City gave a 800, making a great the Federal majority ear it was reduced to iot far from 4,000. onably be redeemed. artin Van Buren. scob Putnamiof Rum-ght hand drawn into e, and so badly mutisary, which was perio. He is now doing

Representatives of of making a Geologproposed an appro-called the Episton so eager to write ternally at it. At was passed against lack ink—several cussion .- Post.

lunker Lill, was Rhode, Island,the news of the int distance in as ang a certain sign may break forth. rrent, but from the

FIRST SENATORIAT Timothy Shaw, John G. Perkins, 🙄 Simeon Barker James M. alcArthur. Tuomas Carll, Love Keay.

each of the Federal candidates.] SECOND SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

OFFICIAL CANVASS.

Otis C. Gross, 6113 Levi L. Totman, 6100 Ira Crocker, Philip Eastman. Charles S. Daveis, Elijah P. Pike, Joseph Freeman, John Sawyer, Scattering THIRD SENATORIAL DISTRICT. Josiah Merrow, Arnold Blaney. Thomas Simmons, Charles Holmes, William M Reed, James Erskine, Isanc Reed. Moses Tibbets.

Scattering *The return &c. in the town of Richmond, rejected because it was not scaled up according to the provision of the Constitution [They were 98 for each of the democratio candidates, and

149 for each of the federal candidates.] FOURTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.* Ezekiel Small, Amos Nourse, Buttlett W. Varnum. Richard H. Vose, Elijah Barrill, Joseph Eaton, 5854 Scattering, *The return &c. in the town of Clinton' rejected because not scaled up according to the pro- covered with shin plasters, the constant struggle him from Van Amburg,) Mr. Carter, made his visions of the Constituion. [They were 329 for each of the Democratic Candidates, and 99 for cach of the Federal Candidates.]

FIFTH SENATORIAL, DISTRICT.* John True. Johanthan Merrill. 1734 Increase S. Johnson, David Allen, Scattering,

*The return &c. in the town of Thorndike rejected because not attested to by the Town Clerk. [They were 126 for the democratic, and 27 for the Federal Candidates.] SIXTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Albina Hall,	90.
Scattering, "For Charles Jarvis,	10,
SEVENTII SENATORIAL DISTRICT	r.*
Charles Jarvis,	1115
Thomas Robinson,	1225
Scattering,	6
*The return &c. of Wesley rejected	l for wan of attestation of Town Clark. They	were 30 for Jarris, and 21 for for Robinson.]
EIGHTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT
Stephen C. Foster.	1591
Noah Smith, Jr.	1058
Santavine.	0

Scattering, NINTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. Levi Bradley, Samuel H. Blake. Solomon Parsons, Lysander Cutler, 3929 Scattering, 137

*The return &c. from Dexter rejected be-&c. from No 6 Plantation rejected because not some of its premonitory symptoms are beginnthe voice of the little great man was often heard good health and was a corpse before the sun rose the places, 185 for each of the Democratic, and 148 ing to exhibit themselves among us just now, for each of the Federal Candidates.] TENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Franklin Smith, Joseph Philbrick, Cyrus Fletcher. Hannibal Ingalis, Scattering, ELEVENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT. Alvan Bolster, David Hammons, *Simeon Barrett, *Daviel Tyler; Scattering, *Of the scattering rotes, 178 were given for Simeon Barrett. Daniel Tyler Jr.

STATE EXPENSES, &c

Our State expenses this year have been unusually large, but the excess above other years has been well expended-wisely and profitably inves- Courier says:ted. A full equivalent for the whole will be realized from the roads made this season through the of a merchant—not in a very enormous business adopting the following conditions:—The first adopting the following conditions:—The first adopting the following conditions to the subscriber (for ready pay) forests An almost incredible amount of labor has been performed, at the smallest possible time, pense, and within the smallest possible time. Nothing like it in these respects was ever before known among us, and the advantage which the Nothing like it in these respects was ever before known among us, and the advantage which the State will thereby ultimately derive is beyond all calculation. Under the wise policy pursued by the state, the new sections are fast filling up with sets then new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new sections are fast filling up with sets the new force of the complete of the complete of the composition, and so much eaten by worms, been thrown open, and the consequence will be a force of the public lands and the said decared, by giving the true of the confort of Court before a there of the land of this order of Court before a there of the complete of the complete of the complete of the court of Court before a the country of Court before a the country of the true of Admiristrator with the Willamezed on the Good of the Follow of the Follow on the Country of the true of wealth to the State. The tide of emigration sets tile communites, strongly towards Aroostook and St. John ; applihave been increased above other years There Votes for Senators for the Political Year, 1840, was a necessity which justified the outlay, and ven a much larger amount, and where is there' Scattering

The Returns of Votes for Senators in the to pay wheat and corn bounties. It is confitted at living from one idea to another, like the been of the democratic candidates, and 71 for expenses, and we do not believe the people are the subject, calls the attention of its readers to very idea of such thing. the propriety of a Bankropt Law in this State. the Legislature at its approaching session; and prother. If the character, implanted by nature, scribers that he would not take in payment for adopted last winter, requiring the commissioners appointed to revise the laws to draft a Bankby the Commissioners, and the draft of such a line kept so far in bondage to the superior, law will, therefore, come under consideration at Augusta, the augroaching winter. The sulat Augusta, the approaching winter. The subject is an important one, and we invite communications in relation to it.—Eastern Argus

A BANKRUPT LAW.

FRANCE AND THE U. STATES. We call attention to the following additional extract from the foreign correspondence of the Evening Post:

'I have travelled through most of the European States, and am now more thoroughly convinced ions in our commercial & financial interests is our niserably expanded paper currency. As it respects currency, no other part of the world exhibits such spectacle as the United States of America now resents. Already, nearly the whole of our circulation is paper, and though the whole land is is to push into circulation more. The appetite for paper 'increases with what it feeds on.'-What are the consequences ? Your yard stick to measures the value of property, is six feet long, instead of three; high prices, constan fluctuations, and panies at home, & loss of credit, if not disgrace abroad. How triumphantly can France now laugh at the financial storm which is shaking England and America! She was never nore prosperous than she is at this moment.-With no paper in circulation under 500 frank notes, she is not subject to the calamities that are constantly befalling our poor shin plastered and Bank ridden America.

ENGLAND AND AMERICA.

A London correspondent of the evening Post rites in the following patriotic and sensible man ner: 'When shall we be truely and practically independent of England? Not so long as our lances, of course, comprehended all the experiauthorize, continue so summarily to leap over all dropped, the audience called loudly for the Alternative of going to London or Paris, or clear the authorized himself to re-Amsterdam, and raising the wind there.' Many a time and oft, while here, has my American blood boiled with shame, if not with indignation, to see sovereign states begging, and begging in vain, at the doors of Jew brokers and bankers.-When will this humiliating state of things terpreserving credit is not to test it too severely.'

CURE FOR HARD TIMES .- There is no disit may be as well to apply the remedy without waiting for the full violence of the attack .-That remedy is neither far-fetch d nor year 570] fined to the government, they merely creen round our inclosures, and pick off what may be reached from the pupile highway; but when *Of the scattering votes, $35 were given for we once soffer them to come upon our own sweep every thing before them.

Coos County Democrat.

Excessive Usuny I - The Philadelphia

public lands; Col. Jarvis and those with him have either—who was forced to stop not long since; was to take tea, the second coffee, and the only) very cheep. Call and second coffee, and to live as long as they

From the New York Sun. CONVERSATION.

a Maine citizen of intelligence, with one spark of careless discourse, that it would be absurd to had labor at the Bagne, for a crime for which issue a paper three times a week during the next patriotism, that grumbles at the expenditure 1— wish that men should never give utterance to an the might have been sentanced to death.

After session of the Legislature wish that men should never give utterance to an the might have been sentanced to death. After session of the Legislature. real years we have had no State tax, and this mis- and spoken only in guarded and chosen terms, she had experienced. Her statement was expenses, and we do not believe the people are lessly pressing that, here a little satire, there a little satire, the little satire, there a little satire, there a little satire, ther not often) a pun-and over all the light laugh that and was unable to work for his bread, nothing speaks the mind at ease with itself. Who would was done for him, and he is now a common beg The Bangor Democrat, in an able article on discourse as this. The heart runs cold at the by the hand of niggard charity.

There is a great difference, however, between This question will undoubtedly come before the careless easy discourse of one person, and of lately had the audacity to announce to his subit is desirable that it should receive a careful and improved by culture, be good, so will the his paper, either woodchucks, dried apples, consideration. A resolution, we believe, was speech, however unguarded, be agreable and terrier pupples, tow, birch brooms, axe handles, blameless; but if the character be rude, then the wool or vegerables. But his subscribers, with easier and more careless the conversation is, the that stardy independance with which such peorupt Law, and present it to the next Legislature more odious it will be. The great desideratum This labor, we understand, has been attended to is, that all the inferior sentiments should conversion. Though we may recreate ourselves all. at moments with light and unreflecting discourse, yet, we are bound, in order that discourse may be innocent, to put our whole minds and hearts under a proper training. We must bring ourselves into such a state of habitual purity of mind, that we may bear inspection at any moment, and under any circumstances. Our hearts should be such, that when out of fair fulness the mouth speaketh, our speech may be such as to show han ever, that the main cause of the constant varia- that our hearts are clean. It is not to be wished that any one should be under restraint; it is only desirable that one's freedom of speech should produce results neither degrading to himself nor offensive to others.

VAN AMBURG OUTDONE.—The lion emperor, (as we suppose he must be called, to distinguish first appearance at Astley's on Monday evening, in a piece entitled "The Miracle or Afghan the Lion King." In the first act of this piece, Mr. Carter fought with a tiger. The beast of prey in the outset mastered the man, and dragged him from a platform down a flight of stairs; and after a contest for superiority for some time, the animal is mastered and is led off tame as a kitten. All this takes place on the open stage, without the restraint of a cage—the tiger has the same latitude as all his brother performers, uncontrolled. In the second act he introduces the novel & beautiful display of a lion in harness, peaceably and Onio was a wilderness. In the year 1836, that the third act he brought out a beautiful leopard thriving towns; 1,010 post offices; 5 incorand played with it attached to a leading-string, as he would have done a lap-dog. His performgistatures, without actual means without funds ments of thrusting in a true and together with ease, cieve the congratulations of the house, leading in his favorite tiger, who partook of the repast of P. Rand, will preach in the Meeting House, in this from Livermore to Portland—near Martin Stream in Village, on Sunday the 24th inst. at 6 o'clock P. M. London paper.

THE CORPORAL. During the American revominate? Not until men shall learn that with lution, an officer, not habituated in his military cosstates, as well as individuals, the best mode of tume was passing by where a small company of soldiers were at work making some repairs upon a smill redoubt. The commander of the little squad was giving orders to those who were under case, which spreads more generally and oper-him, relative to a stick of timber, which they are the control of the works.

In Lowell, Mass. Leavitt C. son of Mr. Osgood Virgin, of Rumford, Maine, aged 21 years.

In Mexico, Mrs. Abigail, wife of Curtis P. Howe Eng. in his regular vociferations of 'Heave away! There she goes I etc. The officer before spoken Eben Virgin, aged about 22 years. In the death of Mr. of stopped his horse when arrived at the place, Virgin, Rumford has lost one of its most annable and and seeing the the timber sometimes scarcely move, asked the commander why he did not take bought. It is at our own doors and costs noth- hold and render a little aid. The latter appeared ing, consisting of two simple ingredients-in- to be somewhat astonished, turning to the officer 3592 DUSTRY and ECONOMY 'Refrenchment and re- with the pomp of an Emperor, said, 'I would have form' may be desirable in the affairs of the na- you to know I'm corporal.' You are not, though, thou, but there is a double necessity for carrying are you! said the officer; 'I was not aware of it.' the motto into our own every day affairs. Ex- And taking off his hat and bowing, I ask your travagance and had management are bad en- pardon, Mr. Corporal.' Upon this he dismounough in a government, but when we admit them ted his elegant steed, flung the bridle over a post, 2011 into our own families they are still worse. Con- and lifted till the sweatstood in drops over his forchead, When the timberwas elevated to its proper station, turning to the man clothed in brief authhority, 'Mr .Corporal,' said he, 'when you have another such job, and have not men enough, send for your Commander-in Chief and I will premises they eat out our whole substance and come and help a second time. The corporal was thunder struck! It was Washington.

BROTHER JONATHAN OUTDONE, -- "The Government," says the Presse, "a few years would have said that the fire of heaven had cations at the Land Office are frequent and number ones, and individuals in their own behalf, and agents of companies are every day traveling easts to oppose them. The best way is to give way, ward. Such signs cannot be mistaken.

The expedition last winter was expensive—the roads have cost money—& the State expenditures to drive him.

Love has a thousand vagaries—some foolish ones—some foolish of the test drinker became so thin and to foot. The test drinker became s burnt his entrails and calcined him from head!

CIRCUMSTARTIAL EVIDENCE,-There is at this moment at Gaillon, in Normandy, a poor So much of the enjoyment of life lies in easy fellow who was condemned to twenty years'

> ple generally possess, refused to pay him any thing else, and he now says he is ready to take them at maket prices. A public meeting is to be called to see whether he it is best to pay at

> A physician enjoying an extensive practice in a western country, advertises that he has removed from his old, residence to a new house, within a few doors of the church-yard, and expresses a hope that his removal will prove an accommodation to many of his patients.

A steam carriage lately accomplished the distance between Cambridge and London in England, fifty two miles, over the common road in four hours and a half! . *

The only prisoner in Nantucket Jail has given he Sheriff notice that unless the prison is repaired so as to guard him against the inclemency of the weather, he cannot remain much longer,

The sugar crop of Louisiana is represented as being in a most floezishing state, the cane being sweeter than it has been for several years, at a more advanced period of the season. By the first of November the Sugar plantations will be all in full operation.

The population of the world is estimated at 730,000,000, of which 50,000,000 are Protestants; 120,000,000 Christians of other sects: 9900,000 Jews; and 140,000,000 Mahometans.

FIFTY YEARS' WORK.—Half a century ago docilely drawing him in a chariot. The lion is a State had a population of one million five hunmagnificent animal but meek and mild and seems dred thousand inhabitants; one large splendid to manage itself rather than be managed. In and densely populated city, and half a dozen porated cities; 33 bank companies; 10 colleges and principal seminaries of learning, together ments of thrusting his arms and legs in the mouths with public institutions for the insane, the deal and dumb, and the blind.

MARRIED.

In Norway, by Rev. L. P. Rand, Mr. Reuben Favor of this town, to Miss Sarah Town, of Norway.
In Livermore, by Isaac Strickland Esq., Mr. John Hosley to Miss Lucinda Beals Mr. Solomon H. Alden to Miss Caroline Hosley, all of Livermore.

DIED.

next morning.
In Rumbard of consumption, Mr. Joseph B. son of Mr enterprising young men .- Com.

MOTICE.

THE copartnership heretofore existing between Drs. Cornelius Holland & Cynus H Coulings, in the practice of Medicine is expired by its own limita-tion. And, as it becomes important to close their Copartnership business immediately, they respectfully request all persons who are indepted to said firm, to call and settle with either of the firm by note or otherwise, CORNELIUS HOLLAND, CYRUS H. COOLIDGE. Canton Point Nov. Sth, 1833.

BUFFALO ROBES. prime lot just received and for sale by the subscrib-er, also, Fur Collors, Neck Ties, Muffs, Winter Fur Gloves, &c &c. W. E. GOODNOW.

Almanacs for 1840.

Norway-Village, Nov. 18, 1839.

JUST received and for sale by the dezen or single lot at the Oxford Bookstore, by W. E. GOODNOW. November 18, 1839.

THRICE WEEKLY AGE.

THE PUBLISHERS OF THE AGID propose to

We are in debt, but not largely in comparson with lidea without consideration. Moralists must not inneteen year's imprisonment, a woman whole It will contain, in addition to the report of other States;—in a pecuniary way we are just at ask too much from mankind or they will get this time cramped and strained, owing to bad finantiaring, which must be improved; and for sevant ask too much from mankind or they will get was on her death-bed confessed that she companies of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings, the News mined the crime, and had denounced the man of the Day, a Synopsis of Congressional proceedings.

subscribers on the different mail routes.

speaks the mind at ease with itself. Who would was done for him, and he is now a common beging Any person procuring six subscribers and forwish to see precise exactness introduced into such gar, eating the dry crust which is thrown to him warding the amount of their subscriptions, shall be entitled to a copy of the paper.

OF The price of all subscriptions must be paid Coming to his Senses.—A western editor in advance, or some persons known to us become

> OF Editors, with whom we exchange, are requested to give the above a few insertions in their Angusta, November 1889;

TRI-WEEKLY JOURNAL.

SEVERANCE & DORR will publish a paper hree times a week during the ensuing session of the Legislature, at One Dollar for the session .-It will contain the Legislature proceedings as usual, and the most important of the annual reports and other documents. Also the proceedngs of Congress, which at the ensuing session ill be of unusual interest.

The extraordinary condition of the financial iffairs of the State—the adoption of the Revised Statutes if they shall be completed—the subject of our Northeastern Boundary-the proposition to take the Bank tax from the Schools and use it to pay the State debt—the imposition of a heavy State tax—the provision for a new valuation the choice of County Officers by the People, and many others subjects which must come before he Legislature, will make it desirable to every citizen to be well informed of the doings of our public servants; and as we almost every year make a sacrifice of individual interest in publishng an extra paper, we must rely upon our friends o aid us in getting a list of subscribers, this year, large enough to pay the cost.

Any person who will procure six subscribers. and send the money in advance, can have the seventh for his compensation.

Payment in all cases required in advance.-This may be equally convenient to subscribers, & we us much trouble and expense in collecting. When convenient we would thank those holdng subscriptions, to forward the names and money, by the 25th of December. Printers in the State with whom we exchange re requested to give the above a few insertions or otherwise notice, Augusta, Nov. 4, 1839.

To the Hos. County Commissioners, for the County of Oxford, at their Session to be holden at Paris, within and for said County, on the last Tuesday of Oct. 1839. HE undersigned respectfully represent that public convenience and necessity require the location of

Worthly Pond in the town of Peru, and where the town road intersects the County road near the dwelling house of Joseph Bartlett—thence in the most feasible oute (grossing said outlet) to the town House in Hart-ord—thence to intersect the County road leading from Paris to Augusta, in the vicinity of South Flatiford Post Office—thence to strike the town road near Asa Co-hurns in Turner—then following said Turner road as

Wherefore your Pelitioners pray that after due pro-ceedings had in the premises, you would view and if practicable, locate said road or such part thereof as you n your wisdom may deem just and proper.

ALPHEUS LANE 5-43 others.
Hufford, Sept. 1839.

STATE OF MAINE.

Oxrono, ss: It a meeting of the County Commissioners begin and holden at Paris within and for the County of Oxford on the last Tuesday of October, A. D. 1839.

N the foregoing petition, Ordered, that the Petitioners give notice to all persons and corporations interested, that the County Commissioners will meet at Seth Harris' Ir. in Torner on Tuesday the tenth day of December next, at nine o'clock A. M., when they will proceed to view the route set forth in the petition; and nunediately after such view, at some convenient place in the vicinity, will give a hearing to the parties and their witnesses; by causing attented copies of said pe-lition and of this order of notice thereon to be served on the Clerks of said towns of Pero, Hartford, and Torner, and on the County Attorney of said County of Oxford, and by posting up like copies in three public places in each of said towns of Peru, Hartford, and Turner, and by publishing the same three weeks successively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at Paris, the first of said pub-lications and each of the other notices to be at least thirty days before the time of said meeting, that all persons interested may then and there appear and shew cause, if they have, why the prayer of said petition should not Attent—J. G. COLE, Clerk, true copy of Petition and Order thereon, w12 Attest—J. G. COLE, Clerk.

To Honorable County Commissioners for the County of THE undersigned respectfully represent that the

A road now traveled from Andover, through Andover North Surplus, Letter C. Surplus to Letter B. is through Andover North Surplus and Letter C. Surplus, almost impassible for carriages of any description, and we would pray your Honors to assess a sufficient Tax on Andover North Surplus and Letter C. Surplus to make the read safe and convenient for catriages and other vehicles, as in duty bound will ever pray.

THOMAS BRAGG & A others.

STATE OF MAINE. Oxforn, ss :

It a County Commissioners Court holden at Parls with-in and for said County of Oxford on the last Tuesday of October, A. D. 1839.

ON the foregoing Petition, Ordered, that the petiprayer of said potition should not be control.

Attest J. G. Chille, There

Attest J. G. COLE, Clark

Bw13 Attest J. G. COLE, Clark

COLLIN'S AXES,

A very superior article, just received and for sale, w. F. GOODNOW. Norway, Oct. 10, 130.

DISEASE WHILE IN THE BLADE, AND NOT WAIT TILL THE FOLL GROWN EAR.

It is here worthy of remark, that in almost every instance where cures have been wrought for this remedy, less than a phial has removed the disease—and, in no case, whether resulting fatally or successfully, has a patient used two whole phials.

The Sanative is above all estimate as a general preventative of CONTAGIOUS DISEASE,—and by many it is said to

Hundreds of certificates from responsible persons who have

Augusta High School. MALE AND FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

THE FALL TERM of this Institute will commence on Wednesday, Oct. 30th *vi commune 11

Mr. Simurl T. Spatibles, an experience described and 19 Handver street 19 to have possession of the general charges of both Departments and give week Jamin Brandreth's Vegetable Unily Lectures on the Natural Sciences, drawing them by a course of experiments; for wheel it will be fully prepared by ru ample philosophic and as tronomical aparatus. From the extensive patronage alternated, the most liberal prevision is made for a compare of competent and experienced Teachers, amounting to the teat the to every twenty-five pupils; and note the employed in either Department who are not to and to pusions in either Department who are not in old to possess high qualifications for the statum to proper Strongs. Latin, Greek, French, Sponish, Italian and German Lauguages, Algebra, Anthenetic, Geometrs, Trigonometry, Chemestry, Goology, Conic Sections, Surveying, English Grammer, Rhetone, and Logic, Geography, English Grammer, Rhetone, and Logic, Geography, Reading, Spelling, Penmanship, History, Painting, Drawing and Morie.

Turnon from 54 to $7, according to studies pursued, payable in advance. Drawing $1,25 and Mesic $6 extern.

With a view of extending the a least os of this In-stitution to as large a sphere as practicable, the Trustees have concluded to lower the tuition one deliar a term to those who pursue only the com non branches of an Eng-

The course of instruction will is, we most thorough character; conducting the least from elementary principles to the high branches remains sphical cultivation, by a steadily progressive improvement. It is designed to be of a strictly practical nature, and calculated in an emigrant device. lated in an emigent degree to judges habits of reflection. and expand and invigorate the intellectual powers, by leading the pupils to think for the weeken. The first class from this Institution entered College the present autumn, and the thorough manner in which they were fitted, is an earnest of what may be expected Sole proprietor of Brandre & Fegenble Universal Pills.

The Trustees take pleasure in commending this I. editation to the patronage of the panels. It occupies a large and commodious Brief E-dides, located in a repossessed of a hystorious innaractive many appears to human system,—a medicine, which begins to be valued by Physicians, who are daily witnessing its astonishing cures of many whom they had resigned to the grasp of the INSATIABLE STATE.

SOMETHING TO

Of most medicines before the public, the patient is directed to "take five or six bottles, and if these do not once, preserves in the use of ten, or even filteen;" but not so with the Match
These, and indeed, all counterfeit Pills, if used according to the directions which accommant my Pills, are enleghted to the directions which accompany my Pills, are calculated to DESTROY LIFE. They are made by near baving no standing or respectability, without habitation or name—perfectly carviess of consequences, provided money is ultramed. [Extract from Dr. B's Address to citizens of the U. S.]

of CONTAGIOUS DISEASE,—and by many it is said to be a never failing audidate, though the inventor does not clothe it with such infallibility.

All persons who live in unhealthy climates, whether hat are cold,—all operatives and others connected with manufactories, and all who lead sedentary and inactive lives, are exposed to various insidence manufactories, which may be scently praying upon their constitutions while their countenances wear the glow or health, and while they "suspect no danger mi.h"—untaides which an occarional use of the Sanative would check in the bud.

[Extract from Dr. B's Address to calize of the U. S.]

And be careful to remember that I have never authorized bediens in the United State to sell my Pills. These contemptions while their in unhealthy climates, whether had an are made agents, have each of them a COPPER—PLATE certificate of agency, signed in writing with a pen by their constitutions while their countenances wear the glow or health, and while they "suspect no danger mi.h"—untaines which an occarional use of the Sanative would check in the bud.

Dr. B. Brandreth, has at very given expense, established th ollowing offices for the exclusive sale of his Vegetable Univer

Hundreds of certificates from responsible parsons who have used the Santiva might be published showing the wonderful cures it his accomplished, but the public will probably prefer to make actual trial of its worth, rather than rely open what may be said of it by its friends or foes.

BOSE of the Sanative, for adults, one deep; for children, a brill drop; and for infants, a quarter drop; the directions explaining the manner of taking a half or a quarter drop.

PRICE*—Two dollars and fifty cents for laft cance.

For sale by the subscriber, who is the only Agent in this victority.

Paris* May 28, 1839.

HUBBARD

For sale by the Subscriber, who is the only Agent in this victority.

Paris* May 28, 1839.

For sale by the Subscriber, who is the only Agent in this victority.

Paris* May 28, 1839.

For sale by the Subscriber, who is the only Agent in this victority.

Price For the exclusive sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his Vegetable Universed at Pills, which he begs to the a discrete sale of his verse, and their meannaters of the manufacture.

New York (Principal)—241 Brusday.

Philateriphia—8 fourth Fighth Street.

Bullimore—9 South Charles Street.

Bullimore—9 South Charles Street.

Albung—151 Wood Street.

Charles of the Sanative at the published of the discrete sale of his verse, Cincinnali—119 Main Street.
Cincinnali—119 Main Street.
Louizville, Ky.—99 Fourth Street
St. Louiz, Mn—56 1-2 Market Street.
New Orleans—3 Old Levee.
(harleston, S. C.—70 Meeting Street. Montreal-63 Notre Dame.

Sub Agents in Maine will hereafter receive from the New England Office

So. Paris-A. Hall, Jr. Buckfield-A. F. Cole. Rumford-Otis C. : ol.ter. Dixfield-I. N. & C. Sinnley. Jay-Joel Palce. Behel-J. K. Kimball.

Livermore—Britton & Morrison.
J. Goolidge.
N. 11 Kimball & Walker.
Wodstock—Wolcone Kinsley. Hartford-Hail & Haines. Greenwood-Welcome Kinsley.

Albany—Lavepay & French.

Turner—Philo Clark.

Norway—Jothan Goodsow.

Lovell—James Walker.

Waterford—Nayes & Noble.

R. H. Gerry.

Sweden—Renjan Nayes Sweden-Benjamin Nevers. Fryelurg—II. C. Bassell.
Porter—John Higgins.
Hurom—Jose h Batterfield.
Canton Mills—J. M. Deshon.
Oxford—Charles Datell.

B. BRANDRITH, M. D.

NEW GRIST MILL.

rpe.1,32

large and commoditions Brief. E-thilee, located in a retired, but healthy and delightty; gart of the town, with ample play grounds enclosed for the accommodations of the public that he has completed his new Grat Mill, No extra charges are made, and it is believe that pupils from abroad may here to educated at as cheaps and that he is now ready to accommodate all who will rate and in as thorough a nature as at any similar in stitution in the State.

Refer for further informat/on to the Trustees, Daniel Williams, James L. Child, John Patter, Elvas Craig.
Luther Severance, Allen Lombard, and Dr. Cyrus
Luther Severance, Allen Lombard, and Dr. Cyrus Livings.

10 Augusta, Oct 7, 1837.

Andover, Oct 8, 1839.

And Andover, Oct 8, 1839.

And Court of Probate fields at Paris, within and for the Cobbs together. Particular election will be paid to Sheriff's Sale.

FARM AT AUCTION.

THE LEVI BERRY Form, so called, and John Howe. now owned by Benjamin Garland, lying two and a half miles from Paris Hill and containing about 80 acres, with good buildings, a good wood lot, and a good pasture, and construction at 150 acres, with good buildings, a afternoon on Toursday, the nineteeth day if March from 20 to 30 tons of Hay, annually, will be sold at public Auction at the Court House on discharge said taxes and the more are not be to that time to discharge said taxes and tharges.

Paris Hill on Wednosday, November 13, 1830. Paris Hill on Wednesday, November 13, 1839, at two o'clock P. M. Perms liberal.

BENJ. GARLAND. Poland, Oct. 10, 1839.

240, 241, 242, conveyed to one John Foster 246, 241, 242, conveyed to one John Foster certain tracts of land situated the the towns of Hebron and Oxford, in said County of Oxford, as security for a certain note of hand therein the first will be fined and therein the first will be first and the transfer of the three first will be first and the transfer of the first will be first and the first will be first an and challen of verse Greenwell duly assigned and transferred to me the subscriber of Boston, Mass., and whereas, the condition mentioned in said Mortgage Deed has not been kept or performed by said Brown:

Now, by virtue of the Law of this State, I claim to have possession of said premises for the purforment, and she weaker in the said Control behavior to be published three weeks. Now, by virtue of the Law of this State, I claim to have possession of said premises for the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment, and she weaker in the belief of the purforment of the belief of the purforment of the purfo

By OTIS II PAINE, Ast. P. M. South Paris, Sept 9, 1-30.

tt n Enceation, under the instruction of J W Hours. Particular attention will be given to those who are prepuring for teaching, and such me comestle solicited to po avail themselves of this opportunity for perfecting themselves in those branches required by law to be taught. Ryerson, life of Paris in said county, deceased, having pressing of Buckfield in the county of Oxford, deceased, by giral county of Oxford, deceased, and also become or interest of the estate of said in the county of Oxford, deceased, by giral or said to be forced. Thomas Cracker, Esq. and at Norris' Hotel. Terms, $3,00 per quarter

Norway, Aug 24th Isla.

ANDRIAM PROFESOR

TAILOR.

ED ESPECTFULLY interns the inhabitants of Paris LD and county that he has taken a Shop in ar Messas Crocker & Share's Store, on Paris-Hal, where all basis Creater & Shaw's Store, on Paris-Hall, where all business in his him will be premptly and faithfully attended.

THE subscriper hereby gives public notice to all conversely, that she has been duly appointed, and taken upon berself the turnst of administrative on the estate of

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE,-ANDOVER.

Sweden, Oat. 31, 1832. WOODRURY, Collector.

Bricks! Bricks!!

ratiff indscriber hereby gives public notice that he will be at his Brick Kiln, situated in the worth

Sa 9 3will Copy, Attest-LEVI STOWELL, Register.

At a Cop. of Probate held at Paris, within and for the THE substraler here'n gives police notice to all recovernest, county of Oak al, on the 15th day of the more of that he has been dely appeared and taken upon himself the number of the estate of the es WILLIAM WALKER Administrator of the estate of Simon

Copy, Attest-Levi Slowell, Register.

Addover, Uet. 8, 100 Augusts, Oct. 7, 1935.

Alse Coset of Produce Indices the Produce Indices of Produce Indices Indices of Produce Indices Indic

STATE OF MAINE.

SMEDICAL CIRCULAR

(F) Preatible published below, somewhigh the new and paid of white advanced by the librarious Deskitche of General part of the white advanced by the librarious Deskitche of General part of the white advanced by the librarious Deskitche of General part of the part

OF RESERVING INFACTOR IS TO PLUCK OUT THIS PURSANT WILLE IN THE BLADGARD SANT WATER AND THE PLUCK are moderated, we will be a server to the provision of the MATCHLESS SANATIVE, whose bealing find the wear of the server to the $22 4.74 shall take effect, from and after its approval by the Governor.

1.63 In Senate, Feb. 26, 1839. This Bill was read twice and refused a passage. Sent down

WILLIAM TRAFTON, Secretary, House of Representatives, March 9, 1839. This Bill having had three several readings, the House nonconcurred the Senate in relusing the some a passage, referred the same to the next Logislature, and ordered it to be published in all the newspaper in this State, that publish the laws of the State. Sent up for concurrence.

Notice of Foreclosure.

Notice of Foreclosure.

Way HEREAS, on the fourteenth day of November, A. D. 1832, one Jacob two reals and the 20th inst. them held passing the same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same to the same in all the newspapers in this same in the same i

State that publish the laws of the State. WILLIAM TRAFFON, Secretary,

STATE OF MAINE.

Secretary's Ciffies, 7 Augusta, Oct. 5, 1839. (

Agent for the State of Moise.

The following are the ONLY Agents in Oxford County formship will be open all business days from the tenume Pills. Buy of them and avoid decept to the Paris will be open all business days from the state of the first accept the firs South Paris, Sept 9, 1-30.

ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL.

The Consideration of the control of the contro

INCREASE SPALDING.

Ordered.

That the said Administrator give notice to all persons interests on the formula of the county of Ordered, by given the said Administrator give notice to all persons interests on the face of the said decreased's counter, to make immediate constitution that Oxford Democrat printed at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, that they may appear at a Product Court to be held at Paris, at ten at the theck in the formula of the fo

A LAME into the rule sure of the subsender about the lath met, fire tast spring earries fone of them the fees and the other we a Line. The owner is requested to prove property, pay charges, and the them are one of the Corson Ripley, Para, October 24, 1-39

ADVERT proprietor he amount BO. OR ! CHAPTER ! MIN A

. A long

TERMS one dollar months; to beyond six when wite by the wil converse w Pēnsblosso bonds and moreover, iron ribs, 1 silver—the pistarcens, mouths. ,I not come as might have clock struc cliffich-yard out of his elinu s'urus lensed, enf soul unto th devil, afore all his under that if the could enjoin jamin, shau Now, alle r cher, he be v Hige; he v of the sele when Old ? was actually The man perform in ter's evening fire, the win or'es of the dower rights about forec geatle tap a sort of a man entered, and "Ha! alre ing out his

"I have be his visiter; to swim in, honor of you "I compty chair a little day, and ther come in, and

Jay on the ta

closed; indeto go just no "I fancy," smile, "thou thou must c'e "I cannot wildly around

"But thon

that I cannot scarcely do." Benjamin's puzzle old S ter. Ilis vis leisurely draw and commenc and indeed in roll of brimst postrils of B chair, and fel betlinking hi ed eggs, roas gridirons. A min's worse I self with a b He passed in dier," and " a moment over paper, the fat congenial to At length lexclaimed, " make my neig Oh; ohjir that quarter 1